

CASE STUDY: BUSINESS PROFESSIONAL

First Corporate Solutions Helps Bank Cut Costs and Improve Efficiency

Background

Greg is an entrepreneur who is starting his own Wealth Management company. He would like to register his business in three states – California, Illinois and Delaware. Greg wants to confirm name availability and file LLC organization documents in all three locations. It is critical for the success of Greg's new business that the registration process be handled properly and quickly.

Challenge and Solutions

To get started, Greg conducted some internet research on forming Limited Liability Companies. He found numerous online resources, including government sites, on this topic. Many government websites encouraged entrepreneurs to work with a private service company to accomplish their business registrations. Organizing a business with proper documentation was more complex than Greg had anticipated. Greg decided to hire a service company to manage the LLC registration process. "I wanted to begin operating my business as soon as possible, but my start-up costs had been high. Funds were short and I was hoping a service company could help me get it right and save costs in the long run," said Greg. Greg began making phone calls in an effort to find a full service provider that could handle various kinds of corporate work for him at a fair cost. After speaking with several companies, Greg decided to appoint First Corporate Solutions to handle his corporate work. "Their website had a lot of helpful information and the staff was so friendly and knowledgeable. They really took the time to make sure I understood the process," Greg noted. In First Corporate Solutions, Greg found a real partner that could offer him a comprehensive solution for his corporate needs present and future.
